The natural stones from India are without child labour. Production units and quarries are regularly supervised. The control and supervision is carried out by the IGEP Foundation India in cooperation with the Rugmark Foundation India. In addition to child labour social standards and the keeping of minimum wages are controlled, too.

The Indian export companies provide 0.25% of the export value for the control work. The importers give 0.75% which are used for social projects, mainly in the fields of education, training and health care. All expenditures and incomes are subject to strict controls of the financial authorities and chartered accountants.
